

Woo Yee Saik

Senior Consultant & Facilitator

Mr. Woo Yee Saik has been involved in Training and Education for over twenty-five years, and runs workshops and seminars to help customers develop practical skills in the areas of leadership, management and communication.

Master Facilitator

Woo Yee Saik is currently a Master Facilitator for VitalSmarts Inc.'s "Influencer: The Power to Change Anything," "Crucial Conversations," "Change Anything" and "Crucial Accountability" programs.

Woo Yee Saik's outgoing nature and keen interest in learning and communication processes continue to be the mainstay of his approach to training, and this has been noted by many participants who have attended his programs.

Corporate Experience

Woo Yee Saik has worked in various institutions and organizations in different capacities starting initially as a schoolteacher in the east coast of Peninsular Malaysia. After university, he joined the International School of Penang, Uplands, where he rose to the position of Head of English and Drama as well as Head of Senior School Pastoral Care. He left the schools sector in 1993 to work at Disted College as its Marketing and PR Manager.

From there, he became Training Manager at Sony Mechatronic Malaysia for three years before joining Robert Bosch Malaysia in 1998 as its Recruitment and Employee Welfare manager. During his time working in both these multinationals, Woo Yee Saik was actively involved in the design and delivery of customized in-house leadership and communication training programs for all levels of staff, and was also a certified trainer for external programs like FranklinCovey's "7 Habits of Highly Effective People," "Advantage Series," "Leadership: Great Leaders, Great Teams, Great Results," DDI's Interaction Management and Targeted Selection and Blanchard's Situational Leadership II.

Accreditation

He holds a Teacher's Certificate from the Ministry of Education, and in 1987, graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from Universiti Sains Malaysia, where he read English and Literature. In 1991 he pursued his postgraduate studies at the University of Bath, United Kingdom, on a British High Commissioner's Award under the Chevening Scheme, and graduated with a Master's Degree in Education Management.
